Art. 28 - Although exhibitors are allowed complete freedom for carrying out publicity on their stands, they are prohibited from using any form of advertising that causes disturbance or involves direct comparison with other exhibitors, or which has a negative effect in any way on the exhibition's spirit of commercial hospitality. It is also forbidden for any vehicles bearing trademarks or publicity to park in Rimini Fiera Expo Centre parking areas, unless expressly authorized by Rimini Fiera and following payment.

More specifically, exhibitors are forbidden to:

- carry out any form of publicity/advertising in indoor and outdoor areas of the expo centre apart from on their stands;
- distribute publicity/advertising material outside their exhibit areas or stands;
- display billboards and/or samples, even if merely indicative, on behalf of companies not listed in the application for participation and not represented;
- carry out shows or entertainment initiatives of any kind, even if only on their stands/exhibit spaces or with the aim of presenting products, without prior authorization on behalf of Rimini Fiera SpA.

Without prejudice to the contents of the abovementioned clauses, all forms of publicity and/or advertising are allowed outside allocated exhibit areas only if previously authorized by the Rimini Fiera SpA publicity office, and are subject to payment of the fees indicated in the publicity rate cards.

Exhibiting firms are totally and exclusively responsible for the contents of publicity messages.

Flyer or leaflet distribution of any form is prohibited both inside and outside the expo centre premises

As well as respecting the abovementioned limits, exhibiting firms are also completely and exclusively responsible for any charges and civil or penal liability due to any advertising carried out; exhibiting firms must also respond for any liability regarding other exhibitors and/or third parties in general, due to the content of advertising messages or infringement of any regulations, including those regarding competition.

As a rule, exhibitors are not allowed to use audio reproduction equipment. Any exceptions must be authorised by the Management, but this does not exempt participants from complying at their own expense with current laws regarding performing rights, according to which they assume all responsibility in any case.

Failure to comply with the abovementioned prohibitions will result in the exhibitor in question being liable to the payment of a fine of 2,000 (two thousand) euros for each act infringing the abovementioned regulations and ascertained by Rimini Fiera, with Rimini Fiera itself reserving the right to any claims for compensation for greater damages sustained.

ON THE SPOT SALE

Art. 29 – The "on the spot" sales are strictly prohibited. Services in exchange for payment are prohibited. The exhibitor assumes every responsibility for violations of this ban, releasing Rimini Fiera from any consequent responsibility and/or charge. Disputes concerning relations with other operators present, arising from this ban, must be resolved directly by the exhibitors involved, releasing Rimini Fiera from any related responsibility and/or charge.

Though sales are strictly forbidden in all exhibition halls, as specified in the first paragraph of this article, the following products may be sold on the spot: utensils for confectioners/ice cream makers/bakeries, albeit only in the "utensils" areas marked off and assigned to this purpose, located in connecting halls A2, A4, C2, B2, B4 and D2. The sale of these products is permitted only in small quantities and in compliance with all applicable regulations, particularly as regards health and hygiene; adherence to these regulations is the exhibitor's responsibility, and Rimini Fiera shall in no way be held liable in this regard. Any administrative costs or taxes to which sales are legally subject are also to be fully borne by the exhibitor, and Rimini Fiera shall not be held liable even in the event of non-compliance on the exhibitor's part.

It is also understood that any disputes that may arise between exhibitors (due to unfair competition, sale of similar products, etc.) must be directly settled by the exhibitors themselves, and Rimini Fiera shall bear no responsibility in the matter.

Art. 30 - The Management reserves exclusive rights to any reproduction (photographs, films, videos, designs, etc.) of the Expo Centre and its stands in particular. Only photographers authorised by Rimini Fiera SpA can work inside the Expo Centre halls.

Art. 31 – Without assuming responsibility of any kind, Rimini Fiera S.p.A. prints and distributes an official catalogue, using the data declared in the Catalogue Entry Form, which must be received within and not later than 1st December 2010. The same data will be used also for the data entry into the exhibitors' map.

If Rimini Fiera does not receive the forms from the exhibitor within the abovementioned term, it will publish the data already in its possession, including the names of firms represented indicated by the exhibitor in the forms of previous editions. In this case the exhibitor undertakes all liability for any damage, also regarding firms no longer represented in the current edition, if the firms represented have changed and said change has not been communicated to Rimini Fiera within the above term.

Participants assume all responsibility of data declared in the application form and catalogue entry form, exempting Rimini Fiera from any responsibility in case of false declaration.

Any other technical indications or publicity can be included by Exhibitors on request and following payment.

In particular, the entry in the official catalogue of the name and products of represented companies present at the Exhibition on the stand assigned to their representatives, will be included in the catalogue at the cost of € 55.50 + 20% VAT for each name inserted.

Any other publicity publication except to the official publications of Rimini Fiera, is printed on the initiative of private individuals without authorisation.

RESPONSIBILITY FOR INDUSTRIAL AND INTELLECTUAL PROPERTY

Art. 32 - The exhibitor assumes all liability regarding ownership of brands, logos, patents, industrial inventions and models, and copyrighted material related to the products and/or machinery on display.

The exhibitor therefore indemnifies Rimini Fiera against all claims in the event of copyright violation or any breach of regulations governing fair competition, with regard to both other exhibitors and third parties in general.

Any disputes that may arise among exhibitors or between exhibitors and third parties shall therefore be directly resolved by the parties, exonerating Rimini Fiera of any liability and/or obligations.

Art. 33 - As well as its trademarks, Rimini Fiera SpA claims as its exclusive property the name "SIGEP, International Exhibition for the artisan production of Gelato, Pastry, Confectionery and Bakery", and all its variations, abbreviations, simplifications and initials, so that nobody whatsoever can use them without prior written authorisation from the Management.
